“When caution is your number one motivator, vision will always take a back seat. We must not allow caution to replace courage.”

4. There is a

Key Points

- We must not allow caution to replace courage.
- Your first step of faith comes after the last step of security.
- “The lazy person claims, “There’s a lion out there! If I go outside, I might be killed.” But, there has always been a lion outside.

Rod & Jacob Schultz

“We can’t get so caught up in looking ahead, that we miss the opportunities God is putting in front of us right now. Because the need for God in the world is so great right now.”

- Jacob Schultz

Key Points

- Don't just leave a legacy, lead a legacy.
- God has never failed us, so why are we so cautious now?
- We need to be generationally intentional. We have to intentionally begin to reach into our future generations.

Gail Stathis

“When people see our lives, I hope they’re able to read the living love letter that is Jesus Christ in us. A love that is unending, a love that is unstoppable.”

Key Points

- We live in a time where God is getting ready to reap the greatest harvest.
- This is a very important time for us to have faith, hope and love.
- We are called to love each other and care for one another. We need each other.

Javon Ruff

“Time is something we never feel we have enough of. Yet, we give it away so easily.”

Key Points

- This is our time to shine.
- Capitalize on every opportunity.
- Time that is given to us on Earth is a time for Kingdom impact and Christ advancement.

Dale Campfield

“God is going to hold us accountable... and I don't know about you, but when I get before the Father I want to hear, “ Well done thou good and faithful servant.””

Key Points

- It's time to dig deep.
- We are relationally connected for GLOBAL impact.
- “Go and make disciples of all nations.”

Hinmer Zúñiga

“Language doesn’t bind us together. A passport doesn’t bind us together. Not even a culture binds us together. But the blood of Jesus Christ is what binds us together.”

Key Points

- The circumstances that surround us should not stop us from doing our work for the Lord.
- Promotions and growth usually happen while we are serving.
- The time to do God’s work is now.

Thank you,

We are so thankful we were able to have another successful conference this year. It was a blessing to be able to come together and worship and grow for the betterment of God's Kingdom. Without all of you, none of this would be possible. We love you and we can't wait to celebrate 40 years with you next year!

With love,

EFI
